2 Corinthians 5:18-20

¹⁸ All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself
Through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

¹⁹ that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ,
not counting people's sins against them.
And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

²⁰ We are therefore Christ's ambassadors,
as though God were making his appeal through us.

16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

As Christ ambassadors,
Christ's love
must compel us!

2 Corinthians 5:14-16

- 14 For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.
- 15 And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.
- 16 So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view.

Gen Z believer: My hopes for young Christians in Singapore

Words by GERALD KOH
Illustrated by NICOLE CHAN

I am a proud member of Gen Z (just about) and already have a decent sensing of how our generation stands out, whether it's through our unique monopoly on TikTok silliness, the 0.5 selfie or our special emphasis on being “authentic” and “relatable”.

The truth is, many of us view our Christian faith rather narrowly, as if it were something that only concerned our own personal lives and the people in our immediate circles.

Carry God's heart of Love!

- Desire to grow in loving others
- Pray for God to fill your heart with His love for others
- Be in a community that carries God's heart of love
- Take action to break inertia, apathy and passivity

I was a failure but a family gave me a home; today I'm the National Director of YWAM Singapore

Joseph Chean // November 13, 2019, 10:31 am

"Christians love strangers because we were loved by the Father when we were strangers. As welcomed strangers, we should be quick to learn to welcome other strangers. We reveal God in that way – through our kindness and through our love and acceptance and our welcome," said Joseph Chean of Youth With A Mission (YWAM). Photo by Marcus Chow.

The first time I did my GCE O levels, I failed – and attempted suicide. In the midst of my lost-ness during my repeated year, I met a classmate who taught me every bad thing that I ever learned.

After my second attempt at the O levels – which I also failed – we went our different ways. Through a divine situation two years later, at the age of 18, he bumped into me on the street.

He had given his life to Christ by then, and felt so guilty that he had taught me all the bad things he had learned in life that he had prayed to God about me.

That very day, he brought me to a Christian meeting and that was how I became a Christian.

They were not wealthy but they opened their home and let me live with them.

“Therefore, you shall love the stranger as yourself.”

Acts
17:17-18

- ¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with both Jews and God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the marketplace day by day with those who happened to be there.
- ¹⁸ A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to debate with him....

Mark
8:36-37

³⁶ What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?

³⁷ Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul?

Acts 20:19-21

¹⁹ I served the Lord with great humility and with tears and in the midst of severe testing by the plots of my Jewish opponents.

²⁰ You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house.

²¹ I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

Acts 20:22-24

²² And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am Going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there.

²³ I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me.

²⁴ However, I consider my life worth nothing To me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace.

Acts 20:25-27

²⁵ “Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again.

²⁶ Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of any of you.

²⁷ For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.
