1 Kings 3:3-5 (KJV)

<sup>3</sup> And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

<sup>4</sup> And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

<sup>5</sup> In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

1 Kings 3:3 (KJV)

"... Solomon loved the LORD..."

- True love releases the unusual
- The greatest things we do for God, we should do out of love
- When we love God, we will step out of the usual and into the unusual

A hand is shown holding a glowing, golden orb that resembles a globe or a celestial body. The background is dark with soft, out-of-focus bokeh lights in shades of yellow and white. The overall mood is warm and spiritual.

It is not only my love for Him,
but it is His love for me that causes me to bring Him

THE UNUSUAL

You cannot do the unusual for God and He not do the unusual for you

A hand is shown holding a red pawn on a chessboard. The background is a dark, blurred chessboard with other pawns visible. The text is overlaid on this image.

1 Kings 3:5 (KJV)

In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.
