God spoke through Rev Steve Penny, 31 July 1994

"This church is a breakthrough church... This is a day, the Lord says, for you not only here in Singapore - you are going to be known in Singapore as the church of breakthrough! There is going to be a unique anointing on this church. Other churches will go in different directions. But God has anointed you to be that which he's called you to be, and you'll be known as the church of breakthrough... Men and women are going to come and receive the anointing to break through and go back to the fields of service and begin to minister in a breakthrough anointing because of what happens in this place... This church is about to increase."

“ That this place be marked with revival, that this place will be marked with refreshing, That this place would be marked by the glory of the Lord.

This place will be marked by the presence of the risen Lamb, that the sick will run to this house and be healed, that broken families will find healing and hope in the presence of the Lord, that prodigals will come running home into the arms of the Father.

That this place will be marked with miracles, signs and wonders.
