TODAY IS THE DAY!
ESTHER 4:9-17

TWO POWERFUL REMINDERS

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

a challenge to rise up v14

For if you keep silent at this time, liberation and rescue will arise for the Jews from another place, and you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this?”

- We need to be constantly reminded and challenged to keep walking in God's purpose in our lives

- We need to consciously remind those around us as well

IF I PERISH, I PERISH

a conviction to make our lives count v16b

And then I will go in to the king, which is not in accordance with the law; and if I perish, I perish.“

- Conviction determines how we live our lives, and the choices we make
  - We must be reminded that our conviction is to make our lives count where God has put us!

TWO SIMPLE ACTIONS

CARING FOR THOSE IMPORTANT TO US

- Esther immediately tried to take care of Mordecai
- Esther's attendants were willing to put themselves in danger and to fast
- God is calling us to love and honor

COMING BEFORE GOD IN PRAYER

- Esther knew that they needed God to move and intervene in the situation and called for a prayer and fast before doing anything

- God is calling us to rise up in our prayer

Morning PRAYER

TWO DEFINING OUTCOMES

LETTING GOD MOVE

Mordecai being honored by the king

- No human hand could have orchestrated this

- We must recognize that the best outcome is when God moves supernaturally!

LETTING GOD LEAD

Esther in her wisdom; Mordecai in writing the edict

- God gave Esther the favor to be received by the king, and the wisdom to know how to prepare her case

- God gave Mordecai wisdom to be able to write a decree to supersede the earlier decree for the destruction of the Jews

- God gives us wisdom to act and respond in every situation

TWO EDICTS

one for extinction, one for salvation

TWO COVENANTS

one for death, one for redemption

THE FEAST OF PURIM

- Pur* means lots - the means by which Haman decided the date for the annihilation of the Jews ESTHER 3:7

- Purim celebrating God's turning around of their situation

- When we are ready to perish - God can finally use us as He desires
